

After practicing law for several years in another State, Lt. Wong arrived in Houston, Texas, to commence his Law Enforcement career more than 20 years ago. Beginning with the Houston Police Department, he served in a variety of assignments including Central Patrol and Juvenile Sex Crimes at Harris County Children's Assessment Center; as a Supervisor, he lead a variety of operations including Alternative Dispute Resolution, Legal Services, FBI Asian Organized Crime Task Force, and Internal Affairs. He also served on the Special Response Group. Following HPD, he served as a Major with the Harris County Sheriff's Office, commanding its Criminal Investigation's Bureau and then its Homeland Security Bureau.

Lt. Wong holds a Master of Science degree in Operations Management and a Juris Doctor degree. He also graduated from the FBI National Academy's 215th Session as well as Leadership Houston's Class XVI, and is a certified Child Protective Services Mediator and Family Mediator in Harris County.

As a senior U.S. Armed Forces Active and Reserve officer, he served in 2007, a 12-month, involuntary foreign-shore deployment in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. He has also served on the Texas Human Trafficking Prevention Task Force, the Advisory Board of the U. S. Department of Justice/Texas A&M University Texas Police Corps Program, and has served as a volunteer mediator for the Harris County Dispute Resolution Center.

Currently, Lt. Wong serves on the Administration Command, overseeing its Administrative Operations, including Internal Affairs and Public Records.
